

Best Sports Bars in Norway

A Guide to Enjoying Sports, Food, and Fun in 2025

Created by sportgues.com

1. Introduction

Norway is a country passionate about sports, from football and ice hockey to skiing and handball. For fans looking to immerse themselves in the excitement of live games, sports bars offer the perfect blend of atmosphere, great food, and camaraderie. This guide highlights some of the best sports bars across Norway, particularly in Oslo, where you can cheer for your favorite teams. Additionally, some venues provide opportunities to engage in sports betting, adding a subtle layer of excitement for those interested. Whether you're a local or a visitor, these bars promise an unforgettable experience.

While enjoying the vibrant ambiance, some sports bars may offer access to betting services through state-regulated platforms like Norsk Tipping, allowing fans to place wagers responsibly. This guide focuses on the overall experience, with betting as an optional enhancement for those who choose to participate.

2. Top Sports Bars in Oslo

Oslo, the capital of Norway, is home to several sports bars renowned for their lively atmosphere and extensive sports coverage. Below are some of the best options based on popularity and visitor feedback.

2.1. O'Reillys

Located in the heart of Oslo, O'Reillys is a favorite among sports enthusiasts. With screens covering every angle, this Irish-style pub ensures you won't miss a moment of the action, whether it's football, rugby, or international tournaments. The bar offers a wide selection of beers and hearty pub fare, creating a welcoming environment for fans.

- Highlights: Multiple HD screens, extensive beer menu, and a vibrant crowd.
- Address: Storgata 30, 0184 Oslo.
- Betting: Some patrons may access Norsk Tipping's betting services via personal devices, adhering to Norway's regulations.

2.2. Bohemen Sportspub

Bohemen Sportspub, situated in St. Hanshaugen, is a classic sports bar known for its cozy yet energetic vibe. It attracts a diverse crowd cheering for local teams in the Eliteserien or international leagues like the Premier League. The bar features a solid selection of drinks and snacks, making it ideal for game nights.

- Highlights: Cozy atmosphere, excellent sports coverage, and affordable prices.
- Address: Arbeidergata 2, 0181 Oslo.
- Betting: Betting opportunities may be available through regulated platforms, enhancing the experience for interested fans.

2.3. O'Learys

Part of an international chain, O'Learys in Oslo combines a modern sports bar setting with a family-friendly vibe. With numerous screens and a menu featuring burgers, wings, and craft beers, it's a go-to spot for watching major sporting events. Its central location makes it easily accessible for tourists and locals alike.

- Highlights: Large screens, diverse menu, and a lively yet relaxed atmosphere.
- Address: Fridtjof Nansens plass 5, 0160 Oslo.
- Betting: Some visitors may explore betting options via Norway's legal betting services.

3. Sports Bars Outside Oslo

While Oslo boasts a vibrant sports bar scene, other Norwegian cities also offer excellent venues for sports fans. Here are two notable options.

3.1. Sportspuben in Bergen

Located in Bergen, Sportspuben is a local gem known for its dedication to sports. The bar features multiple screens showing a variety of games, from football to winter sports, reflecting Norway's love for diverse athletics. Its welcoming atmosphere and tasty pub food make it a must-visit.

- Highlights: Wide sports coverage, friendly vibe, and local craft beers.
- Address: Torgallmenningen 1, 5014 Bergen.
- Betting: Fans may engage with Norsk Tipping's betting platform for added excitement.

3.2. Tromsø Sportsbar in Tromsø

In the northern city of Tromsø, Tromsø Sportsbar offers a cozy retreat for sports lovers. With a focus on football and ice hockey, this bar provides a warm atmosphere amidst the Arctic chill. It's a great spot to connect with locals while enjoying live games.

- Highlights: Cozy setting, strong focus on local sports, and hearty meals.
- Address: Storgata 70, 9008 Tromsø.
- Betting: Betting options may be accessed through regulated channels for those interested.

4. Responsible Enjoyment

Visiting sports bars is about soaking in the excitement of live sports, enjoying great food, and connecting with fellow fans. For those who choose to explore betting opportunities, it's important to do so responsibly. Norway's state-regulated

The betting platform, Norsk Tipping, ensures a safe environment with limits to promote responsible gambling. Always set personal boundaries and enjoy the experience as part of the broader sports culture.

5. Conclusion

Norway's sports bars offer a fantastic way to experience the thrill of live sports in a lively, social setting. From Oslo's bustling pubs to cozy venues in Bergen and Tromsø, these bars cater to fans of all kinds. While some provide access to regulated betting services like Norsk Tipping, the true highlight is the shared passion for sports. Whether you're cheering for a local team or an international favorite, these sports bars promise memorable moments in 2025.

Plan your next game night at one of these top sports bars and immerse yourself in Norway's vibrant sports culture!